

Selected for the Children.

Always Learning.

Waste not your precious hours in play—
Naught can recall life's morning;
The seeds now sown will cheer your way,
"The Wise" are always learning.

Nor think when all school days are o'er,
You've bid adieu to learning;
Life's deepest lessons are in store;
"The Meek" are always learning.

When strong in hope you first launch forth
A name intent on earning,
Scorn not the voice of age and worth;
"The Great" are always learning.

When right and wrong within you strive,
And passions fierce are burning,
Oh then you'll know how, while they live,
"The Good" are always learning.

AUNT EMMA.

MY DEAR CHILDREN: I have watched for your letters from week to week and was made to feel glad to see the interest you are taking in the work. Just imagine you see the many little faces that every week look for the EVANGELIST, and hear the little hearts beat while they must wait until all the older ones read.

While I was visiting in Dayton last summer, a lady who is an intelligent mother, told me when the EVANGELIST was handed her she first looked for the Youth's Department. So you see our mothers and fathers, too, are interested in the work among the little ones.

The Dewdrops are true to their names, and the pearly drops shine with heavenly light upon them. Of course our work is slow, but we will have "never give up" for our motto, and that is sure to win in the end.

The letters that appear in the Youth's Department are having a different tone; they are beginning to sound newsy.

What has become of our little friends in Dakota? We are always glad to hear from new friends, and feel disappointed when old friends do not send regular messages. With kind wishes for all

AUNT LOTTIE.

"Remind Me of the King."

La Fontaine, chaplain of the Prussian army, once preached a very earnest and eloquent sermon on the sin and folly of yielding to a hasty temper. The next day he was accosted by a major of the regiment with the words:

"Well, sir! I think you made use of the prerogatives of your office, to give me some very sharp hits, yesterday."

"I thought of you while preparing the sermon," was the reply, but I had no intention of being either personal or sharp."

"Well it is of no use," said the major, "I have a hasty temper, and I cannot control it. It is impossible."

The next Sabbath La Fontaine preached upon self-deception, and the vain excuses which men are wont to make.

"Why," said he, "a man will declare that it is impossible for him to control his temper, when he very well knows that were the provocation to happen in the presence of his sovereign, he not only could but would control himself entirely. And yet he dares to say that the continual presence of the King of kings and Lord of lords imposes upon him neither restraint nor fear."

Next day, his friend, the major, accosted him.

"You were right, yesterday, chaplain," he said, humbly. Hereafter, whenever you see me in danger of falling, remind me of the King!—Sel.

Aunt Lottie's Letter-Box.

DEAR EDITOR: I will try and write again for the Youth's Department. I have just got through reading the children's letters, so I thought I would write to help fill the corner.

We have had a very long and cold winter, and now it looks like we are going to have a few days of Spring again. We have had good sleighing all winter, except a few days. The Methodists are holding a protracted meeting in Junction City and they have three new members. They have had meeting a week and are going to have it all next week. Being we have no church of our own, we go to the M. E. church. Now little boys and girls, you must fill the corner up next week. I will close by writing a verse:

There are many troubles
Which come upon us in this world,
That almost cause us to despair,
We often fear that we shall never survive.

Now remember this motto:
Try, try again. LABAN DAVIS.

Your letter was delayed in coming, and should have appeared before. Since the writing, death has visited your home and claimed a dear brother. But God is merciful, and he has promised that the dead shall see again. God grant that he who has gone before may but help to make the way easier for them who love him and soon must follow.

DEAR LOTTIE: I will try to write a letter for the paper, as I wrote two letters before and did not get them sent; but will try and send this one. Papa has gone to church and I am staying at home with mamma, as she is sick and could not go. We have church every Sabbath, once in the evening and once in the daytime. Our day school will be out on Wednesday; William Garver is our teacher. I like to go to school. I study Geography, Arithmetic, Reading, Spelling and Writing. I will close for this time. The next time I will try and send a dime for the Dew Drop.

LIDA BELLE PAINTER.

We are pleased that you have sent us a letter for our corner. Hope your mamma has since recovered. You are a good little girl to stay at home with her and give her your company. We will always be glad to hear from you.

DEAR EDITOR: I thought I would write a few lines for the BRETHREN EVANGELIST. It has been some time since I wrote. I will be 10 years old in March. I was sick with the sore throat about two weeks; the whole family was sick with it. My school is out; it has been out three weeks, but it will commence the first of April. I will tell you what my pet is; it is a little white rabbit; its name is snow drop. I will try to get three subscribers. The Christian church had a revival here. I only missed two nights. Their house was just crowded every night, so that all the standing room was taken up. They got a hundred and five joiners. They got three from the German Baptist church. They had good meeting all the time and, I liked to go very much. Little girls and boys I would like to hear from you often, and do not do as I have done: I have neglected to write. Will not some little boy or girl be so kind as to send me the song of the Low Green Valley? Dear Lottie I will inclose for the Dew Drop.

Nellie Clark.

I am very sorry to learn that you have had so much sickness. Hope your throat is entirely well. Your pet has a pretty name, hope you may be able to keep her a long time. I trust some one will send the song. I have never heard it.

DEAR LOTTIE: I received your letter about your visit to the big tunnel. I think it would be nice to go to such a tunnel. I never was through a tunnel, but I was at the natural bridge. I wish you would come down to Virginia, and visit the bridge. It looks so strange to see such a high bridge all solid rock, as it seems as you look at it from below. When you get on top you would not think of a bridge being near you as there are so many trees and pretty evergreens growing on top. Your father was here last summer, and was at our Sunday School. He preached a sermon for us in the afternoon. We were all sorry to see Mr. Holsinger leave so soon. I hope he will come to see us some time again. I see there is only one letter from a little girl this week. I hope more will write. I would like to join the Dew Drop Club. I will send ten cents.

WILLIE P. NIXINGER.

Roanoke Va., March 2.

Thank you, Willie, I would indeed enjoy a visit to the natural bridge. Sometime I may be permitted to see this great nature's monument. Your description of it is very interesting. I thank you for it. Would like you to go there at sunset, sometime, and tell me how it looks. Your dime entitles you to the name of Dew-drop. We welcome you.

DEAR LOTTIE: It has been a long time since I wrote, so I will try again. I have a nice little brother and I help to work for him. He will be five months old the 11th of this month. We call him Cyril Emsey. Don't you think it real nice to have a little brother and sister to play with? Papa has gone to church to-night. They have had a big revival; upwards in 80 converts. It is the Evangelical. Ma is tying a comfort to-night. My teacher has lost one of his scholars this winter; he has been called from time to eternity in the bloom of youth, aged 17 yrs, 5 months and 2 days. His disease was typhoid pneumonia. His name was Willie Taylor. We have three weeks school yet. Our sleighing has played out. The post-master is dead. He was 72 years old.

IDA A. YAGEL.

Deerlick, Ohio.

Yes Ida I am very fond of my sister, and think it would be very nice to have a brother. I am pleased that you appreciate yours. So many little brothers and sisters cannot agree even in play. Death is always sad but we must have it in order to gain eternal life.

Just Out!

A New Song and Chorus, ENTITLED

"THE CAP MY MOTHER WORE."

Words by Mrs. Harriet Jones.
Music by J. C. EWING.

"As white as the foam of the ocean,
Were the soft plain folds of lace,
That all through the years did encircle,
My mother's beloved face, etc.

Full sized sheet form. Price 30 cents.
Address, J. C. EWING,
WILMINGTON, OHIO.

Wanted!

We want the name and post-office address of every young lady or gentleman who contemplates attending College, or taking a Business, Music, or Normal Course. Any person sending us the names and address of such persons in the circle of their acquaintance, will do us a great favor. We desire the names of such persons in every locality. When you write to us, Brethren, enclose a slip with names.

A Premium for the Children.

The little people make excellent agents for papers, and we want as many to work for us as we can find. We will send a neat little Autograph Album with the EVANGELIST editors' names on the first two leaves, to any boy or girl who will send us one subscriber and $1.50, or two subscribers for six months and 75 cents each, or three subscribers for four months and 50 cents each. A number of children have already secured an Album.

The Brethren's Annual.

The BRETHREN'S ANNUAL for the year of grace 1885, contains a calendar for each month; biographical sketches and portraits of Elder Isaac Price, Sister Hannah Knapp, and Elder John Cadwallader; a correct census of the Brethren Church for 1884; family readings; household receipts; rules by which complete railroad receipts, and matters of general information. Price 20 cents per copy. Address BRETHREN PUBLISHING HOUSE, Ashland, Ohio.

THE CINCINNATI
Weekly Enquirer
FOR 1885

Will have no superior in the newspaper world.

Its news matter is from the Daily Enquirer, which paper has out-done all others in enterprise and facility for gathering the news, and being published at Cincinnati, the most central of the large commercial cities, with complete railroad facilities, and mail accommodations, is enabled to place the news in the hands of the people MANY HOURS IN ADVANCE of papers printed elsewhere.

All departments of the paper are replete with latest information of special interest to the end that each and every member of the household visited by it, will find much to benefit and profit thereby.

FAMILY NEWSPAPER

It has no equal, to which fact its circulation and popularity will bear ample testimony.

FARM INTERESTS are treated in a common sense manner and are rendered doubly interesting by contributions from practical farmers in every State of the Union.

THE HOUSEHOLD page is given up to the ladies, who know best how to entertain and instruct one another in all useful and profitable employments.

MARKET REPORTS, reliable and fresh from our own reporters enable buyers and sellers of all commodities to trade with profit.

BOYS AND GIRLS are not forgotten or slighted; they contribute to make up a live newspaper. The Enquirer is of all the one newspaper of all, to be first selected for the family circle.

ITS MORAL TONE and teachings being in happy accord with pure thoughts and tastes, exerting an influence for good in opposition to all contaminating evils.

Specimen copies free, get one examine and decide for yourself.

THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS

$1.15 for one year. | $0.65 for six months.

We have no club rates, all paying the same price single or in clubs. We give a free paper one year to any person sending a club of seven names at $1.15 each.
